

IICRC Standards

ANSI-accredited, industry-recognized guidelines that set the benchmark for quality in inspection, cleaning, and restoration. Developed through a rigorous consensus process with input from experts and stakeholders across the field, these standards outline best practices that ensure safety, consistency, and professionalism. Serving as the foundation for training, certification, and accountability, IICRC Standards support both industry professionals and the communities they serve.