

The ANSI National Accreditation Board (ANAB) has Accreditation programs that operate in accordance with international guidelines and have been verified by government and peer review assessments.

Being ANAB Accredited assures the IICRC's competence and reliability regarding our Mold Remediation Specialist (MRS) Certification program.

It shows that the IICRC sustains continual improvement through assessment of system effectiveness, efficiency, and competence as well as promotes consistence and demonstrates equivalence of assessments via mutual recognition based on peer review. To learn more about ANAB and what it means to be accredited, please CLICK HERE.